Edmonds Waterfront Center (EWC)
Volunteer Role Descriptions

- Administrative Support: Assist various EWC staff departments -- assemble membership mailings, assist with correspondence, accounting, data entry, filing, etc. May have a regular schedule or be on-call.
- Bastyr: Bastyr Center for Natural Health provides naturopathic medicine to seniors and patients of all ages. The clinic program at EWC uses volunteers to schedule appointments, assist with pre-screening, check-in patients, accept payments, make reminder calls, and assist clinic staff with administrative duties.
- CDL Bus Driver: Friendly, helpful, and able to physically assist trip goers on and off bus as needed. Must have a current Class C license, pass background and motor vehicle record (MVR) checks. Schedule includes weekdays and some evenings and weekends.
- Docent: Provide EWC educational tours to guests and groups. Become familiar with the EWC history, mission, and programs and be comfortable with public speaking. May have a regular schedule or be on-call.
- Facilities: Provide varied support throughout the building--cleaning, maintenance, event set-up/break-down, audio-visual support. Must be able to lift 35 lbs.
- Foot Care: Professional foot care for all feet. Volunteers handle patient check-in, clinic flow, assist with pre-appointment footcare forms, obtain payment with receipt, retrieve calls from voicemail footcare line, make appointments, place courtesy reminder calls, and maintain the waitlist. HIPAA training required for this position.
- Reception: Receive visitors and phone calls at the upstairs or downstairs reception desk—greet folks and direct inquiries appropriately. Become familiar with EWC activities; learn registration processes and tools for the senior lunch program, EWC membership, and scheduled classes.
- Special Events: Provide support for a variety of events throughout the year. Assistance with set-up and clean-up, event check-in and monitoring, and other support, as needed. Weekdays, weekends, and evenings as needed.
- Statewide Health Insurance Benefits Advisors: SHIBA, part of the Washington state Office of the Insurance Commissioner's consumer protection services, provides free, unbiased and confidential help with Medicare and health care choices. Volunteer responsibilities include answering calls and assisting with outreach and partnership development. Extensive training offered to become an advisor.
- Thrift Store: Winner of Best Thrifting in KING 5's Best of Western Washington 2021, the thrift store has a community of 70 volunteers receiving, sorting, pricing, displaying, and selling donated merchandise. Funds raised support EWC.
- Trip Host: Chaperone for trips. Duties include keeping the group safe, comfortable and on-time, assisting the driver, taking attendance, distributing itineraries and tickets, acting as the group representative while at the destination or event venue, maintaining emergency contact information, and handling emergency situations. Schedule includes weekdays and some evenings and weekends.
