MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

When Life is Too Much

Last week I met a mother of a 15-year-old daughter. Tragically, this mother's teen had just died of cancer; an unimaginable loss. She was planning the celebration of life at the EWC. On the same day I was invited to a friend's 99th birthday gathering.

How does one navigate the pain associated with tragedy and loss? Long life comes with both joy and tragedy.

Celebrated documentary filmmaker Ken Burns talks about how the loss of his mother to cancer when he was eleven years old defined how he viewed the world. This experience shaped his life's path, making documentaries of catastrophes and triumph. When neighbors - with limited means - pitched in to help pay his mother's medical bills, he said, "I understood something about community and courage, about constant struggle and little victories." He instilled in his own children the knowledge that when life is too much to bear, know this: This to Shall Pass, Seek the Help of Others, Give Yourself Grace.

Knowing that this will pass does not diminish the pain or grief, it reminds you that there is a path forward – a time ahead when you will again be able to experience joy. In fact, there is often a transformation that occurs when life is most unbearable. Loss can be the catalyst that creates insight, peace and compassion. Struggle is what brings meaning to life. The Buddhist teaching to live with death on your shoulder reminds us not to take life for granted and to live fully.

A willingness to ask for help when you are feeling vulnerable is a strength and an important part of well-being. A reluctance to ask for help is often rooted in shame and fear that it will be perceived as a weakness. This is especially difficult for men. As a representative of this gender I can say I have this tendency (confirmed by my wife) – of not wanting to admit I need help. Researcher and CEO of Better Age, Jim Firman, has found that asking for help is a "protective factor" strongly associated with happiness and well-being among older adults. My wise wife also likes to remind me of the African adage, "If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together."

Among the recommendations cited by Ken Burns, perhaps the most important is the willingness to extend to yourself grace. We are often our own worst critics. We play into society's stereotypes, with criticism blaring at full volume in our heads in the form of destructive self-talk – "it's my fault, I need to be stronger. I am failing the people who depend on me..." This type of self-talk is damaging and leads to isolation at a time when you need others most. We are imperfect and not at our best, especially in times of crisis. Forgiving yourself is the first step in healing.

We all face headwinds in life and some turn into catastrophes that can shake us to our very core. Know that when navigating life's challenges, even when they seem insurmountable, there is a path forward that begins with the support of others and forgiving yourself.

Celebrating Janet Young's
99th birthday

MISSION

The EWC bridges generations and cultures to improve lives, strengthen our communities, and empower individuals to achieve their full potential.

CORE VALUES

- Lifelong Learning
- Health & Wellness
- Diversity & Inclusion
- A Culture of Respect
- Involvement of Volunteers
- Commitment to Innovation

COMMITMENT TO SAFETY

We value the safety of all who work and volunteer here. The EWC is a gathering place where we do not allow threats or aggression.

In Washington state threatening or engaging in harmful behavior towards community center employees may be subject to various laws, including laws related to assault, harassment, or intimidation, depending on the specific circumstances.

Threats and aggression include:

- Rude language
- Acts or threats of violence
- Sexual talk or actions
- Insults based on gender, religion, or race

If you see or feel any threats or aggression, tell staff right away. We will remove people from the center who act in a threatening or aggressive way.

UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENTS & PROGRAM NEWS

EDMONDS AUTHOR & SPEAKER SERIES PRESENTS

"I LOVE BEING ABROAD"

with author Julie Cascioppo

Thursday, Jan 29; 6:30-8:00pm

IN THE WATERFRONT BANQUET ROOM

$7.50 per person ~ Sign-up Online

<https://tinyurl.com/42jrp9ed> or Pay at the door

"I Love Being Abroad" is a vibrant memoir chronicling Julie Cascioppo's transformative decade as an American jazz singer in 1980s Paris. What begins as a one-month escape from Seattle becomes an eight-year journey of artistic discovery, romantic entanglements, and personal reinvention in the City of Light. Julie's story resonates with anyone who has taken a leap of faith, stepped outside their comfort zone, or pursued a creative dream against conventional wisdom. Special thanks to our program partners My Edmonds News & Edmonds Bookshop!

EWC ENVIRONMENTAL SPEAKER SERIES

Hosted by "Ocean Annie" Crawley

"SHARKS OF WASHINGTON"

WITH LISA HILLIER, VETERAN RESEARCH SCIENTIST & SENIOR BIOLOGIST W/ THE WASHINGTON DEPT. OF FISH & WILDLIFE

Thursday, Feb 5; 6:30-8:00pm

IN THE WATERFRONT BANQUET ROOM

$7.50 per person ~ Sign-up Online

<https://tinyurl.com/2ztwbfmk> or Pay at the door

Washington's coastal waters and the greater Salish Sea are home to a surprisingly diverse community of sharks—keystone predators that help maintain the structure, balance, and resilience of marine ecosystems. Yet these species remain largely unseen, misunderstood, and under-studied. Lisa Hillier presents about Sharks of Washington — diversity, management, and new research on species expanding into the Puget Sound area of the Salish Sea.

Special thanks to our program partners Port of Edmonds & Edmonds Beacon!

Your Personalized Health & Well-Being Report – Coming Soon

Imagine taking a brief health & well-being survey then immediately receiving a snapshot of your strengths and areas that may need some attention. The survey includes measures of physical health, mental health, emotional well-being, social connectedness, health barriers, life satisfaction, purpose, and personal priorities for improvement.

The EWC is excited to partner with BetterAge, a nationwide health research organization focused on helping individuals live their best life. BetterAge provides a digital tool designed to help older adults improve their health and well-being.

In January, EWC members will receive access to a personalized health snapshot. Simply follow the link to our custom site, complete the 7–10-minute well-being survey, and receive your report instantly. There is no fee for the service. From there, the EWC is ready to help you with next-step resources. Keep an eye on your inbox.

9 TO 5 THE MUSICAL AT THE EVERETT VILLAGE THEATRE

Thursday, January 22

Depart: 12:00pm Return: 5:00pm

Cost: $40M/$60NM

Little Walking +/++

Spots Available: 9

Meet at: Lake Ballinger Center

Tumble out of bed and stumble to the theater for this delicious workplace revenge comedy from living legend Dolly Parton. Pushed to the boiling point by their sexist, egotistical, lying, hypocritical boss, three female co-workers concoct a plan to get even—a plan that spins wildly and hilariously out of control. Set in the Rolodex era, when shag rugs, pet rocks, and disco were the grooviest things around, this must-see, dance-filled musical is based on the hit 1980 film and features the blockbuster title song—plus a new score of 18 original numbers by Dolly Parton herself. Outrageous, big-hearted, and even a little romantic, 9 to 5 The Musical is about teaming up and getting credit, taking care of business, and it's about to put a huge smile on your face. Please be advised this program includes adult content matter*

BEFRIEND YOUR MIND: REWIRE YOUR THOUGHTS TO EASE WORRY & LIFT YOUR MOOD

Thursday, Feb 12, 12:00pm-1:00pm

Location: Community Room B

Cost: None

Facilitators: Colleen Holbrook, LICSW, CMHS

Register: Opens Jan 2; Online/Phone/2nd Floor Reception

We all experience those days. Days when our inner critic takes over, we feel stuck in a cycle of worry or low mood, and we become our own worst enemy instead of our own best friend. This workshop is for navigating those common bumps in the road, not for clinical anxiety or depression (which are important to discuss with a doctor).

In this insightful session, you will discover the profound power of your thoughts and how the messages you give yourself directly impact how you feel and act. Guided by a blend of proven therapeutic approaches, you will learn a powerful process of self-discovery.

A LOVING GIFT TO YOURSELF: A HEART-CENTERED ANTI-INFLAMMATORY COOKING DEMO

Friday, Feb 13, 1:00pm-3:00pm

Location: Community Room B

Cost: $15 member | $20 non-member

Facilitators: Nutrition With Heart

Register: Opens Jan 2; Online/Phone/2nd Floor Reception

Join us for a warm and nourishing cooking demo, created to bring comfort, connection, and delicious anti-inflammatory flavors to your day. Registered Dietitians from Nutrition with Heart, your local, award-winning nutrition counseling practice, will lovingly guide you through a hands-on cooking class featuring a three-course menu crafted with care. Together, we'll prepare a wholesome starter, a vibrant and satisfying main dish, and a softly sweet dessert, all made from our signature NWH anti-inflammatory recipes. This gentle, heart-centered class is designed to support your well-being while inviting you to slow down, savor, and enjoy the simple joy of creating beautiful food. It's also a lovely way to begin your Valentine's weekend — a thoughtful gift to yourself that nourishes both heart and body. Whether you're hoping to learn something new, feel inspired, or simply treat yourself with kindness, you'll be welcomed with warmth every step of the way. We can't wait to cook with you and share this special day.

DO I NEED A WILL OR A TRUST? HOW CAN I AVOID PROBATE?

Tuesday, Feb 17, 1:00pm-2:30pm

Friday, Feb 27, 1:00pm-2:30pm

Location: Community Room B

Cost: None

Facilitators: Elaine Henderson, RN

Register: Opens Jan 2; Online/Phone/2nd Floor Reception

This class provides foundational knowledge about low bone density, including its causes, risks, and practical strategies to maintain and improve bone health. Participants will gain insights into the anatomy of key areas like the spine and hip, learn targeted exercises, and discover ways to enhance balance and prevent falls. The session will also cover safe movement techniques and the role of nutrition in supporting bone strength.

FUNDRAISING CORNER

Below is an update on our Building Enhancements and current needs. Thank you to all of our generous donors!
Please contact Daniel Johnson if you would like to help at 206.293.4823 or visit our website to make a donation at www.edmondswaterfrontcenter.org

A special thanks to our supporters!

Recent Grants

• Verdant Health Commision for Enhanced Wellness	$136,080
• Norclife Foundation for Senior Lunch program	$45,000
• Hazel Miller for Senior Lunch program	$10,000
• Rick & Peg Young Foundation for General Operating	$10,000

Current Needs

Senior Lunch Program — Monday through Friday we serve 60 to 70 hot nutritious meals to people 60 years of age or older (who are registered for the program) for a suggested $4 donation. If someone cannot afford the lunch it is provided at no charge. In 2025 we have served nearly 17,000 lunches. While the meals are subsidized, we still must raise $70,000 per year to cover the costs of this vital program.

Scholarships — We never want the cost to be a barrier for someone from participating in our programs. Upon request, we provide up to $150 in scholarships for an individual to help with the cost of membership, programs or trips. Our goal is to maintain a scholar fund of $5,000.

Wishlist

- Bus replacement - $60K raised toward $120K goal
- Built-in bookshelves for 2nd floor library - $6,500
- 20 replacement banquet tables - $2,500
- 80 replacement chairs - $20,000
- Livestreaming capability - $10,000

At Right: Peter uses the new Automatic ADA Push Pad door opening system.

Enhancements were added to all restroom doors and the main entrance of the building.

FUNDRAISING CORNER

Legacy Circle

We are delighted to introduce the Edmonds Waterfront Center Legacy Circle, created for those who wish to secure the future of our life-changing programs. By including the EWC in their estate plan, people can ensure their impact endures for generations to come. To support this permanent legacy, we have partnered with the Community Foundation of Snohomish County to manage the EWC Endowment.

What is the Legacy Circle?

The Legacy Circle is an association of friends and supporters of the EWC across the region. Like you, these people seek to ensure that the dynamic EWC programs and activities will thrive for generations to come, by including the EWC in their estate plan. Legacy Circle giving may include a will, a charitable gift annuity, a trust, or a life insurance policy.

If you would like to learn more about how you can participate, contact Daniel Johnson; daniel.johnson@edmondswaterfrontcenter.org

Experiencing the Joy of Giving Today

I have been a longtime supporter of the EWC. It is a truly remarkable place. The building location on the water and the welcoming staff make it a healing place. I also feel that the spirit of the Coast Salish People is present and reminds us of the interconnectedness of the land, sea, and all living things.

Earlier this year I joined the EWC Legacy Circle, a group of people dedicated to ensuring the EWC continues to thrive for future generations. I made the EWC the beneficiary of annuity my late husband established for me.

Since I do not need the money for living expenses, I realized I do not need to wait for my passing to contribute the money, I can give it now. So, I have transferred those funds, and it feels great! If you are grateful to the EWC like I am and want to help ensure that it continues to thrive in the future, I encourage you to consider joining the EWC Legacy Circle and make a gift today.

Seeking donations of Northwest Native Art!

The EWC is building a collection of Indigenous Peoples art. We'd appreciate being considered should you have pieces that are looking for a new home.

The purpose of our permanent exhibit is to educate visitors on the history, art, and influence of Indigenous Peoples to our region. The EWC's Art Committee evaluates and selects art based on its origin, quality, size, and historical significance.

For more information or to donate, send an email inquiry to EWCart@edmondswaterfrontcenter.org

LAKE BALLINGER CENTER

You will find lots of great programs and friendly, even familiar, faces over at the Lake Ballinger Center! Since May 2023, the LBC has taken some of our greatly loved programs under their wing. Membership is reciprocal at the Lake Ballinger Center, so if you are a member of the EWC, you also get discounts on LBC programs, and vice versa! Be sure to visit their Center located at 23000 Lakeview Dr. in Mountlake Terrace or give them a call at 425.672.2407. You can also find them online at www.lakeballingercenter.org
